BHGE Integrity Guide for Suppliers, Contractors and Consultants

This guide also applies to Consortium Partners
A Message from Baker Hughes, a GE company

Baker Hughes, a GE company (“BHGE”) is committed to unyielding integrity and high standards of business conduct in everything we do, especially in our dealings with BHGE suppliers, contractors, consortium partners and consultants (collectively “Suppliers”). BHGE bases its Supplier relationships on lawful, efficient and fair practices, and Suppliers must adhere to applicable legal and regulatory requirements in their business relationships as set out in this BHGE Integrity Guide for Suppliers, Contractors and Consultants (the “Guide”) in connection with their activities for BHGE.

Suppliers are responsible to ensure that they and their employees, workers, representatives, suppliers and subcontractors comply with the standards of conduct set out in this Guide and in other contractual obligations to BHGE. Please contact the BHGE manager you work with or any BHGE Compliance Resource if you have any questions about this Guide or the standards of business conduct that all BHGE Suppliers must meet.

Responsibilities of BHGE Suppliers

You, as a Supplier to BHGE, agree:

Fair Employment Practices: To (i) observe applicable laws and regulations governing wages and hours, recruitment and employment contracts; (ii) allow workers to choose freely whether to organize or join associations of their own choosing for the purpose of collective bargaining as provided by local law or regulation; (iii) prohibit discrimination, harassment and retaliation; (iv) upon end of employment, reimburse return transportation costs for workers recruited from outside the country; (v) not charge workers recruitment fees or utilize firms charging workers such fees; (vi) not utilize fraudulent or misleading recruitment practices; (vii) not hold or destroy a worker’s identity or immigration documents; and (viii) provide workers with terms and conditions of employment in a language the worker understands.

Health, Safety & Environment: (i) To comply with applicable environmental, health and safety (“HSE”) laws and regulations and BHGE’s contractor HSE requirements; (ii) to provide workers a safe and healthy workplace; and (iii) not to adversely affect the local community. If housing is provided or arranged, it must meet host country safety standards.

Human Rights (i) To respect human rights of your employees and others in your business operations and your activities for BHGE; (ii) not to employ workers younger than sixteen (16) years of age or below the applicable minimum age, whichever is higher; (iii) not to use forced, prison or indentured labor, or workers subject to any form of physical, sexual or psychological compulsion, exploitation or coercion, or to engage in or abet trafficking in persons; (iv) to adopt policies and establish systems to procure tantalum, tin, tungsten, and gold from sources that have been verified as conflict free; and (v) to provide supporting data on your supply chain for tantalum, tin, tungsten, and gold to BHGE when requested, on a platform to be designated by BHGE.

Working with Governments, Improper Payments and Dealings with BHGE Employees and Representatives: (i) To maintain and enforce a policy requiring adherence to lawful business practices, including a prohibition against bribery of government officials, (ii) not to offer or provide, directly or indirectly, anything of value, including cash, bribes, gifts, entertainment or kickbacks, including offers of employment, or participation in a contest, game or promotion, to any BHGE employee, representative or BHGE customer or to any government official in connection with any BHGE procurement, transaction or business dealing, and (iii) to provide supporting data to BHGE when requested.

Competition Law: Not to share or exchange any price, cost or other competitive information or engage in any collusive conduct with any third party with respect to any proposed, pending or current BHGE procurement.
Intellectual Property: To respect the intellectual and other property rights of BHGE and of third parties, including all patents, trademarks and copyrights.

Security and Privacy: (i) To respect privacy rights and secure the data of BHGE employees, customers, and suppliers (collectively, “BHGE Data”); (ii) to implement and maintain physical, organizational and technical measures to ensure the security and confidentiality of BHGE Data in order to prevent accidental, unauthorized or unlawful destruction, alteration, modification or loss of BHGE Data, misuse of BHGE Data, or unlawful processing of BHGE Data; and (iii) protect Supplier operations and facilities against exploitation by criminal or terrorist individuals and organizations.

Trade Controls & Customs Matters: (i) Not to transfer BHGE technical information to any third party without the express, written permission of BHGE; (ii) to comply with all applicable trade control laws and regulations in the import, export, re-export or transfer of goods, services, software, technology or technical data including any restrictions on access or use by unauthorized persons or entities; and (iii) to be cognizant of US Antiboycott laws, regulations and guidelines and not to take any action or inaction that could expose BHGE to liability or penalties under U.S. Antiboycott laws.

Management Accountability and Responsibility: To adopt or establish a management system that (i) is consistent with this Guide and applicable laws and regulations; (ii) includes processes to identify and control HSE, business ethics, labor, human rights and legal compliance risks associated with your operations; and (iii) requires periodic self-assessments of your operations and audits of your supply chain to ensure compliance with this Guide.

Controllership: To ensure that all invoices and any customs or similar documentation submitted to BHGE or governmental authorities or audited by third parties in connection with transactions involving BHGE accurately describe the goods and services provided or delivered and the price thereof and ensure that all documents, communications and accounting are accurate and honest.

How to Raise a Question or Concern

Subject to local laws and any legal restrictions applicable to such reporting, each BHGE Supplier is expected to inform BHGE promptly of any concern related to this Guide affecting BHGE, whether or not the concern involves the Supplier, as soon as the Supplier has knowledge of such an occurrence. BHGE Suppliers also must take such steps as BHGE may reasonably request to assist BHGE in the investigation of any such occurrence involving BHGE and the Supplier. If Supplier’s work is related to a U.S. government contract, Supplier must notify BHGE of any alleged non-conformance with this Supplier Integrity Guide.

I. Define your question/concern: Who or what is the concern? When did it arise? What are the relevant facts?

II. Prompt reporting is crucial — a question or concern may be raised by a BHGE Supplier as follows:
   - By discussing with a cognizant BHGE Manager; OR
   - By calling the BHGE Integrity Helpline: +1.281.921.2775; OR
   - By emailing bhge.ombuds@bhge.com OR
   - By contacting any Compliance Resource (e.g., BHGE compliance team member, legal counsel or auditor).

III. BHGE Policy forbids retaliation against any person reporting such a concern.
